DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 19 and 21 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Barthel (4,055,268).
3. Regarding claim 19, Barthel discloses an insulated article with a first tube (21, Figure 2, column 7, lines 3-30), a second tube (15) a sealable vent (23) for evacuation of gas and a layer (10) between the first and second tubes having low thermal conductivity compared to the first and second tubes
4. Regarding claim 21, the area between the first and second tubes is variable adjacent the vent as seen in Figure 2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 20 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Barthel in view of Gibbon et al (3,265,236). Barthel discloses the invention except for the layer comprising yarn. Gibbons et al discloses a similar article with a similar layer of low thermal conductivity (12, Figures 3-5) and the layer comprises filaments of fiber spun into yarn (column 5, lines 16-38). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have incorporated the use of filaments of fiber spun into yarn as disclosed by Gibbons et al in the article disclosed by Barthel since it is known in the art to use yarn in low thermal conductivity layers.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 1, 2 and 4-8 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of
